Wait a moment and try again. 1 Log in to your LA Fitness online account. Visit and scroll over "Member Tools" in the top toolbar to bring up the dropdown menu. Click on "My LA Fitness" and enter your account details. If you don't have an account, you can create one by clicking "Create an online account" button on the bottom right of the screen.[1] When creating a new account, you'll need to input your membership tag number which can be found on your membership card. If you don't know your membership tag number, you can ask an employee at an LA Fitness to provide it to you. 2 Click "Cancellation Form" and fill it out. Once you get into your account details, you'll see a link for a cancellation form on the right side of the screen. This form includes fields for all of the personal details that you provided to LA Fitness including your name, address, and phone number. Print out the form and fill in all the fields.[2] Make sure that all the information on your cancellation form is accurate or it could hold up the process. Advertisement 3 Obtain a cancellation form from an LA Fitness gym rather than online. If you can't print the form yourself or you're already at the gym, you can obtain a cancellation form from an employee at the gym you go to. Sign in using your membership card and ask for a membership cancellation form.[3] If you have any additional questions about the cancellation, you can ask the employee. Advertisement 1 Mail in your cancellation form using certified mail. If you use certified mail, you'll receive a receipt when LA Fitness receives the form. Fold the form in half and stick in an envelope with a stamp. Take the letter to the post office and send the form to "LA Fitness, PO Box 54170, Irvine, CA 92619-4170" using certified mail.[4] If your letter is postmarked 5 or more business days before your next billing date, you won't receive another bill. If the letter is postmarked close to the billing date, you may be charged again. 2 Fax your cancellation form rather than mailing it. If you're unsure of the fax number for your gym, you can either call your gym or ask an employee in person. Take the filled out cancellation form and fax it to the number provided to you and make sure to save the fax receipt. The gym should initiate the membership cancellation.[5] 3 Talk to the operations manager to cancel your account in person. Visit or call the gym and ask to speak to the operations manager. Set up a time to meet with them and explain why you want to cancel and give them the cancellation form. The operations manager will then start the cancellation process.[6] Operations managers are typically available in each gym from Monday to Friday from 9 am to 5 pm. 4 Call customer service to verify that your account has been canceled. Wait 48 hours for your cancellation form to be processed. Call the corporate number at 888-601-5870. Ask the customer service representative whether your account has been successfully canceled.[7] If your account hasn't been canceled, explain your circumstances and give them receipt numbers and dates when you submitted the form. Visit and input your zip code to find the local number you can call to check the status of your cancellation. 5 Call your bank or card company if you continue to get charged. If LA Fitness refuses to cancel your membership and you still can't get a hold of them, you can call your bank or credit card provider to stop recurring charges on your accounts. Explain to the bank that you tried to cancel your account but that LA Fitness won't cancel it. They will stop future charges to your card.[8] 6 Consider freezing your account rather than canceling. If you aren't going to use your membership in the next 30 days but want to use the gym in the future, it may be worth it to freeze your account rather than canceling. Freezing your account costs $10 per month but will prevent you from having to pay start-up fees if you want to start using the gym again.[9] Advertisement Add New Question Question Why does LA fitness make it difficult to cancel a membership with a letter? Virtually every company makes it difficult to cancel a membership, because as long as you can't figure out how to cancel, they keep getting your money. LA Fitness is notorious for this. Question I have tried to cancel my service multiple times, but I am still being billed. What should I do? Call your bank or credit card company, tell them situation, and they will block any billing from LA Fitness. Ask that they reverse prior charges, as they were not approved. Question Can I cancel in person at any LA Fitness location or does it have to be the one where I had the membership? You may cancel at any LA fitness location, just make sure it is M-F, 9-5 when the Operations Manager is in. Question I just signed to be a member 3 days ago. Can I cancel my account? You have 3 non-holiday business days only during which to cancel an account after creating it with no repercussions. Question What can I do if I do not understand the LA Fitness contract? LA Fitness does not have contracts. It's a month-to-month membership. You can cancel anytime. You just have to give a 5 day notification before your billing cycle and you will still have the remaining 30 days to workout because you paid for your last month at the point of sale. Question What is certified mail? Certified mail is simply a way for the sender to confirm mailing and delivery of an item. If you send something certified mail, you will be provided with a receipt at the time of mailing to prove when you mailed it. You can also ask to be provided with a receipt at the time of delivery. Question How do I cancel my prepaid LA Fitness membership and get my money back? After a year the contract becomes month to month automatically. Talk to the person at the front desk about getting out of the membership, and ask to see a manager if needed. Question How can I cancel my personal training? You can contact the gym directly and ask their policy on cancelling a personal training session. Question When is the billing cycle monthly? Your billing cycle you the anniversary date of when you signed up to the gym. So for example, if you started on May 15th. Your billing cycle will be the 15th of every month. You can always change your billing cycle, if you choose to do so, after your first billing cycle. Question Can I cancel my whole family with one cancellation letter? It's one form per barcode, so you must submit each one separately if your family has different member IDs.
